

Steve Gartin

From: "Chas Clements" <chascllementsSPOOF@comcast.net>
To: "Steve Gartin" <steve@thunderrock.net>
Sent: Wednesday, March 31, 2004 11:01 PM
Subject: Fw: Affidavit of Hostile Encounter

Chas

'It's Fighting, not Folkdancing!'

<http://docslaw.com/>

www.chasclements.com

<http://www.kuntaosilat.net>

----- Original Message -----

From: "Chas" <chascllementsSPOOF@comcast.net>

Newsgroups: rec.martial-arts

Sent: Wednesday, March 31, 2004 10:00 PM

Subject: Re: Affidavit of Hostile Encounter

> "Steve Gartin" <steve@thunderrock.net> wrote> Greetings all:

> > >..... I

> > immediately observed Carlos Bonilla walking in the middle of Iliff with > cell

> > phone in hand and appeared to be engaged in a conversation.

>

> This is not a light encounter.

> Carlos is a member of organized crime; a confidential informant who just > made a deal and got a light sentence, in protective custody, for his > participation in an international drug-smuggling operation.

> As with Gartin, Carlos has threatened me, my family; brought people over to > my house to threaten me; his brother, Atche, talking about graveyards full > of dead DEA agents. I knew them socially, and they were indiscreet, telling > me about their business. Suddenly I knew too much about them, and they > started threatening me- it happens.

> He'd do anything his handlers told him to do, and they're fashing over

this > hearing coming up. The Motion for Forgiveness forgives them for a long line > of felonies perpetrated under color of authority- accepting forgiveness > would admit to having done the crime, and they're reticent to even step into > court.

> The important thing is to log it in and make it public.

> There's a funny story in here though.

> I was at the house one day and up comes Carlos with another guy. The guy's > all trimmed out with a little devil beard; black clothes- a player. They sit > down and start to reminisce over hits they'd done- more precisely that this > guy had done for Carlos; lightly veiled threat at me- my boy is playing at > our feet.

> The guy's telling a story about sitting down next to a mark, a witness to be > threatened or something, and sticking him in the thigh with a butcher knife.

> He tells him; 'hey; you don't even know me, and look what's already happened > to you".

> Guy didn't testify after that.

> Only a week to the hearing, and things really heating up-> watch this space.

> --

> Chas

> 'It's Fighting, not Folkdancing!'

> <http://docslaw.com/>

> www.chasclements.com

> <http://www.kuntaosilat.net>

>

>

>

