RE: proposed settlement of 03DR1773/03C5605

Dear Counselor Grier:

This letter in reply to your proposed offer of settlement of 26 April, 2005.

1. a. Parties shall have joint custody. Residential Parent shall have day-to-day decision making authority.

b. Mason shall reside with Petitioner and scheduling as per the Special Advocate's recommendations for two years.
The schedule can be revisited and adjusted by agreement between Parties or by the Court at any time.

c. Petitioner shall provide transportation for Mason to and from parenting time with Respondent.

d. Any 'Parenting Course' will be at the cost to Petitioner, including transportation for Respondent.

e. Any Order by the Court may be revisited by either Party for good cause at any time in the future, or modified by agreement between Parties.
2. Katherine Grier recovers all costs and judgments from Petitioner and forgives Respondent all costs and judgments now and in the future.
3. Ms. Lawler will waive any interest in the Clements' Family Property.
4. Child support will stay as in Temporary Orders; Respondent has responsibility for Hunter, Victoria has responsibility for Mason.

5. No maintenance will be paid by either party.
6. The Complaints for Fraud, Permanent Restraining Orders, Motions for Contempt and Motions for Sanctions that Respondent has filed will be dismissed.
7. Reciprocally, any potential action by Ms. Lawler or her agents that she or they believe they have against Respondent as of the date of the signing of the agreement can not be brought against Respondent at any time.

Thank you for your time on this matter.
